

Dale's Pale Ale

America's first hand-canned craft beer is a voluminously hopped mutha that delivers a hoppy nose and assertive-but-balanced flavors of pale malts and hops from start to finish. Dale's Pale Ale is a hearty (6.5% and 65 IBUs), critically acclaimed trailblazer that has changed the way craft beer fiends perceive canned beer.

Mama's Little Yella Pils

Oskar Blues' newest beer is an uncompromising, small-batch version of the beer that made Pilsen, Czech Republic famous. Mama's is built with 100% pale malt, German specialty malts, and Bavarian hops. While it's rich with Czeched-out flavor, its gentle hopping (35 IBUs) and low ABV (just 5.3%) make it a luxurious but low-dose (by Oskar Blues standards) refresher.

Old Chub

This jaw-dropping Scottish strong ale (8% ABV) is brewed with bodacious amounts of malted barley and specialty grains, and a dash of beechwood-smoked malt. Old Chub features a skim-milk mouthfeel, semi-sweet flavors of cocoa and coffee, and a kiss of smoke. A head-turning treat for malt heads and folks who think they don't dig dark beer.

GORDON

Our "Velvet M-80" is a luscious, double-red ale with a gooey aroma, a sticky mouthfeel, a malty middle and unctuous hop flavors. Gordon has a surprisingly comfortable finish for a beer of its size (8.7% ABV, 60 IBUs). It's brewed in tribute to Gordon Knight, a Colorado craft beer pioneer and Vietnam vet who died fighting a 2002 wild fire outside of our hometown, Lyons

In November of 2002, Oskar Blues Brewery (in tiny Lyons, Colorado) began hand-canning its hoppy, assertive-but-elegant Dale's Pale Ale on a table-top machine that sealed just one can at a time. The move made Oskar Blues the first US craft brewer to brew and can its own beer.

Why cans? "We thought the idea of our big, luscious pale ale in a can was hilarious," recalls founder Dale Katechis.

A joke until we expanded from our little mountain town to 26 states across the US. While 60+ craft brewers are currently canning beer, Oskar Blues continues to shatter the boundaries with behemoth beers in a can like Ten FIDY Imperial Stout & GUBNA Imperial IPA.
